UD in the news June 5-12

The Conversation, The Wall Street Journal, BBC World, Crux, America and Spectrum News in Ohio and North Carolina are among the high-profile news outlets tapping UD experts to explain current events.

Local outlets also continued to frequently interview experts about topics associated with COVID-19 and George Floyd's death, including Vice President for Diversity, Equity and Inclusion Larry Burnley's participation in a panel of local experts discussing police relations with the black community.
